Littleport, Cambridgeshire) on 9th May 1880 at All Saint's Church, St. John's Wood, London. In 1881, George and Mary Ann appear as "Barnell", living at 37 Palmerston Road, London, Middlesex. With them, daughter Beatrice aged 4mths. Also, Elizabeth Barnell is listed as the daughter of George and Mary Ann. However, Elizabeth is 20, just 10 and 9 years younger than George and Mary Ann respectively so this relationship is incorrect. Elizabeth is perhaps George's younger sister although she was born in the same place as Mary Ann (Hertfordshire) which is unusual. George is noted as a coachman in 1881, London and a licensed victualler in 1891 in Dunstable, Bedfordshire. Soon afterwards he died in his pub, The Royal Oak Inn, 1 Church Street, Dunstable.
